Commitment to Social Responsibility Results in Sustained Progress

- Long-term declines in underage and binge drinking continue
- Alcohol-impaired driving as a percent of overall traffic fatalities is at the lowest percentage since Department of Transportation began reporting alcohol data 1982
- Spirits sector contributes to progress through evidence-based underage drinking programs, support for strict enforcement of existing laws, and comprehensive anti-drunk driving legislation
- Drug-impaired driving on the rise:
 - In 2016, 44 percent of fatally-injured drivers with known results tested positive for drugs, up from 28 percent just 10 years prior. (2018 GHSA Report)
 - Spirits industry (R.org) has supported increased awareness on drug- and polysubstance-impaired driving and provided funding for advanced law enforcement training
 - Spirits industry (DISCUS) has lobbied in support of funding for the development of accurate and reliable roadside testing technology for marijuana

2019 Issues to Watch

- Efforts to end retaliatory tariffs on U.S. spirits products
- Craft Beverage Modernization and Tax Reform Act (S. 362) reintroduced February 6
 - Industry-wide effort to extend FET reduction
 - Two-year tax cut for distillers, brewers and vintners ends in 2019
- TTB rulemaking on modernization of labeling & advertising regulations
 - First revision in decades of labeling & advertising rules for spirits, wine and beer
 - DISCUS fully engaged to ensure regulations reflect ever-evolving marketplace
 - Comments due March 26, likely to be extended to June 26
- Sunday sales ban repeal efforts in South Carolina, West Virginia and Texas
- Spirits tastings lobbying efforts in Georgia and North Carolina
- United States-Mexico-Canada trade agreement signed; Congress consideration likely
- Deadline looms for another possible government shutdown
 - TTB's approval of beverage alcohol formulas, labels and permits is critical to getting products to market and generating both federal and state revenue
 - TTB reports the recent shutdown roughly doubled the agency's existing backlog

Small Distillers Across U.S. Voice Concerns about Retaliatory Tariffs

Caught In Tariff War, U.S. Distillers Fear Losing Out On Global Whiskey Boom

Growing Trade War Affects Local Distilleries

U.S. Craft Distiller Perspective

- Founded by Becky and Scott Harris in 2009
- The first legal distillery in Loudoun County, VA since before Prohibition
- Employs 20 people
- Sources grains and fruits from local farmers
- Produces Virginia's most awarded whiskey – Roundstone Rye
- Participated in several MAP export promotions through DISCUS, resulting in new export contracts

U.S. Craft Distiller Perspective

- Lost over $100k in exports sales due to EU retaliatory tariffs (i.e., cancelled contracts)
- Postponed plans for a $1 million expansion (new fermenters, mash tanks, and pot stills)
- Initial business plan for 2018 was to achieve 25% of revenue from the EU
- Now estimates to achieve only 1%
- Implemented a hiring freeze and forced to halt pay increases
