DISCUS Launches Job Board

Chris Swonger, president/CEO, Distilled Spirits Council of the U.S., called the Job Board “a talent pipeline to help strengthen and diversify the workforce for our members and our industry for years to come.”

The spirits industry has thousands of open positions to fill each year, he noted.

Thirty-day positions will cost DISCUS members $250 and nonmembers $300, while 60-day positions will cost $450 and $550 respectively. Internship postings are free.
