Delays and Deferments in Tax Payments
Employer Payroll Taxes	Deferred payment of the employer share of the Social Security Tax	(UPDATE) The year-end package extends the repayment period through December 31, 2021. Penalties and interest on deferred unpaid tax liability will not begin to accrue until January 1, 2022.			The PPP Flexibility Act enacted into law on June 5 allows employers to take advantage of the employer payroll tax deferral even if the PPP is forgiven.
Tax Credits
Employee Retention Tax Credit (ERTC)	(UPDATE) Beginning in January 2021, credit for each calendar quarter equal to 70% of the qualified wages with an increased limit on the per-employee creditable wages from $10,000 for the year to $10,000 for each quarter.	(UPDATE) The year-end package expands the ERTC for the period January 1-June 30, 2021. (UPDATE) The year-end package retroactively provides employers who receive PPP loans to qualify for ERTC with respect to wages that are not paid for with forgiven PPP proceeds.	Tax credit for retaining employees despite governmental orders limiting commerce, gravel, or group meetings; partial or full trade or business operation suspension; or significant decline in gross receipts	(UPDATE) The year-end package also reduces the gross receipts decline requirement for eligibility from a 50% decline to 20% decline. The year-end package also increases the 100-employee delineation for determining the relevant qualified wage base to employers with 500 or fewer employees.	Eligible employers can request advance payment through IRS Form 7200 . (UPDATE) The year-end package also included language to increase the operability between the ERTC and PPP. Businesses taking a PPP loan can now also take the ERTC on wages not paid with PPP funds.
