Delays and Deferments in Tax Payments
Employer Payroll Taxes	Deferred payment of the employer share of the Social Security Tax	The year-end package extended the repayment period through December 31, 2021. Penalties and interest on deferred unpaid tax liability will not begin to accrue until January 1, 2022.			The PPP Flexibility Act (enacted into law June 2020) amended section 2302 of the CARES Act to allow an employer that receives a PPP loan to defer the payment and deposit of the employer's share of the payroll tax, even if the loan is forgiven. Additional IRS guidance can be found here .
Tax Credits
Employee Retention Tax Credit (ERTC)	Beginning in January 2021, credit for each calendar quarter equal to 70% of the qualified wages with an increased limit on the per-employee creditable wages from $10,000 for the year to $10,000 for each quarter . Thus, an employer	The American Rescue Plan Act extended the timeframe that eligible employers can use the ERTC through December 31, 2021. The year-end package retroactively provided employers who receive PPP loans to qualify for ERTC with respect to wages that are not paid for with	Tax credit for retaining employees despite (1) governmental orders limiting commerce, travel, or group meetings (for commercial, social, religious, or other purposes) due to COVID-19 or (2) a 20% or greater decline in gross receipts compared to the same calendar quarter in 2019. The American Rescue Plan Act also created a new provision to expand ERTC for "Severely Financially Distressed	The 2020 year-end package also reduced the gross receipts decline requirement for eligibility from a 50% decline to 20% decline. Eligibility ends if gross receipts in a 2020 quarter exceed 80% compared to the same quarter in 2019. The year-end package also increased the 100-employee delineation for determining the relevant qualified wage base to employers with 500 or fewer employees.	Eligible employers can request advance payment through IRS Form 7200 . The year-end package also included language to increase the operability between the ERTC and PPP. Businesses taking a PPP loan can now also take the ERTC on wages not paid with PPP funds or Shuttered Venue or Restaurant Revitalization Fund grants. PPP funds and ERTC cannot be used to cover the same payroll costs.
